Two fully animated stories and one fun sing-along song."The Royal Pink Circus: " Gigi and Frances are both excited to go see the traveling circus. They've heard that it is the only circus in the world with princess tightrope walkers and pink tigers. Well, that last part may or may not have been accurate. The girls learn that getting everything 'right' is not as important as showing love and caring for our friends. "The Princess Hair 'Do": Gigi sees a TV special about a princess from another country who has short hair and decides that getting her hair cut short will make her both gorgeous and more princess-y. Ever get a haircut you weren't happy with? In the end, Gigi learns that beauty is only skin-deep and that, no matter what, she is still a princess in God's eyes.
