Counting is fun with the books in this series. Each book features a lively, rhyming tale that encourages young readers to count to ten. The text also reinforces early reading development. Plus, the fun illustrations, 3-D characters, and pop-up add a tactile touch to learning numbers. This book brings a favorite counting song to life. Watch a little bear disappear from the bed each time a page is turned. Discover where all the bears have gone with a pop-up surprise at the end of the book. Children will love watching the action unfold in each scene as they learn to count. The whimsical, rhyming text will appeal to new and emerging readers.
