An attractive, precocious teenaged girl shows up in Donald Youngblood's office one morning needing help finding her missing mother. Now, Don must track down a mother gone wrong while trying to find her abandoned daughter a proper home. To complicate matters, an old flame, Sandy Smith, is being harassed by a former boyfriend, who is not who he appears to be. Tracking down the missing mother with the help of his best friend and partner, Billy Two Feathers, and Don's ever-dangerous new friend, Roy Husky, the trail of clues leads to a Las Vegas confrontation where Don comes face to face with the evil henchmen of Vegas bad boy, Victor the Viper, and nearly pays the ultimate price.
