All kids will relate to Laura Numeroff's latest classic. What child hasn't thought about trading his or her parents for the ones next door! Who wouldn't be discouraged if your parents don't allow you to have pets or go camping or drink chocolate milk before dinner? In the newest picture book by Laura Numeroff, a little boy ponders why the parents of his friends are so special and why sometimes he wishes he could trade...But then he remembers his very own parents and all the amazing things that only they know how to do - like the way they always read together or leave notes in his lunch box or take family bike rides - in fact, his parents are the best of all! Full of fun, whimsy details and a relatable cast of characters, "I Wouldn't Trade My Parents" will resonate with parents and kids alike, as readers remember why they would never trade their parents for the world!
