"Rachel Zucker may be Generation X's likeliest heir to the confessional legacy of Sylvia Plath, Louise Gluck, and Sharon Olds."-"The Believer" Rending the terrorizing forces of modern existence from abstraction and placing them directly in our laps, "Museum of Accidents" is a brutally honest epic of domestic proportions. Rachel Zucker is the author of three collections of poetry and co-editor of "Women Poets on Mentorship: Efforts and Affections." A graduate of the Iowa Writer's Workshop, she currently lives in New York City with her husband and three sons, where she is a certified labor doula.
