Atsushi Ohkubo's freshman work concludes in this final installment of B. ICHI!! NoFix and Yohei face off. During their fight, NoFix reveals yet another of his abilities: he can make someone see a five-second "loop" of time, which repeats while NoFix makes his move, unseen. Yohei sees through the trick but it isn't enough to defeat NoFix. Tool and Mana come to the rescue just in time to save him from NoFix's attack. They're not out of danger yet, though - NoFix gets into the Fear Robot. Crazy and determined to kill everyone involved with Yohei, NoFix attacks Mana. Shotaro shows up in the nick of time to save her. Facing the robot, Shotaro discovers what the "Kyokotsu" really is: his own bones. Using the power of Kyokotsu, Shotaro unleashes his latent power and attacks the Fear Robot. After escaping from the Fear Factory, Shotaro crosses paths with Emine. But their reunion isn't an entirely happy one ...
