GROUND ZERO opens on September 11, 2001. A man drifts in a boat off lower Manhattan as the towers burn. He removes a small box from his pocket and presses a button. As he waits for the South Tower to collapse, he thinks: The vast majority will blame the collapse on the crazy Arabs who hijacked the planes and the Islamic extremists who funded them the obvious choice. A few will notice inconsistencies and point fingers elsewhere, blaming the government or Big Oil or some other powerful but faceless entity. No one absolutely no one will guess the truth behind the who and the why of this day. But years later, someone has started fitting together the pieces of the puzzle and anonymously posting her conclusions on the web. But she can't stay anonymous forever. Someone has traced her and is after her. Jack becomes involved in her troubles and in the paranoid mazes of the 9/11 Truth Movement, where conspiracy theories point in every directionleft, right, up, down. But they're all wrong. The truth is stranger, darker, and more evil than anyone can imagine. It involves the cosmic shadow war into which Jack has been drafted. And if the plot behind itmillennia in the planningsucceeds, it will forever change life on this Earth. Those behind that plot will do anything to stop her. But they've made a fatal miscalculation. They don't know about Jack. Like everyone else, they don't know he exists. They think they're hunting defenseless prey. The don't know she has a guardian who is armed to the teeth and can be just as cold-blooded as they. Maybe more so.
