One morning, Michael decides he wants to be someone different. So he looks into his closet and finds some clothes. When he is dressed his mommy doesn't recognize him. He is Michael the Businessman and announces that he is going to work. After working in his "office", Michael decides he needs a vacation and goes back to his closet and becomes Michael the Knight. As a brave Knight, Michael slays the dragon and rescues the Princess. Later, after another visit to his closet, Michael becomes a fearless Pirate and finds treasure in his kitchen in the way of chocolate chip cookies! But who is his favorite Michael? Find out in this imaginative story about dressing up, pretending and discovery.
