In a culture that embraces and cultivates the notions that men only care about one thing and beauty is only skin deep, it's easy to buy into these lies. Fortunately, Mark

Atteberry is here to set the record straight. Men aren't just interested in outward appearance. Bring sanity and hope back into your relationships, your dreams - and your closet - with the revelation of what men really want. But it's more than you thought - more intriguing, more exciting, more attractive ...and So Much More Than Sexy.
