With one of the world's fastest-growing economies and a population quickly approaching two billion, China holds substantial sway over global financial, social, and cultural networks. This volume explains China's economic rise and liberalization and assesses how this growth is reshaping the structure and dynamics of global capitalism in the twenty-first century. China has historically been the center of Asian trade, economic, and financial networks, and its global influence continues to expand in the twenty-first century. In exploring the causes for and effects of China's re surging power, this volume takes a broad, long-term view that reaches well beyond economics for answers. Contributors explore the vast web of complex issues raised by China's ascendancy. The first three chapters discuss the global and historical origins of China's shift to a market economy and that transformation's impact on the international market system. Subsequent essays explore the ability of large Chinese manufacturers to counter the might of transnational retailers, the effect of China's rise on world income distribution and labor, and the consequences of a stronger China for its two most powerful neighbors, Russia and Japan. The concluding chapter questions whether China's growth is sustainable and if it will ultimately shift the center of global capitalism from the West to the East. This cutting-edge collection of works by leading global political economists links current events to long-term trends in global capitalist development to provide a comprehensive analysis of China's impact on the world. Scholars of China, world systems and globalization, international relations, and political economy will find this assessment worthy of study and an important starting point for further research.

文章挺鸡肋的，如同前评所言，references倒是蛮好用~

要说里面的文章多深刻那倒也没有的，但入门还不错，references好有用

每次读Ho-fung Hung的文章都收获颇多

由数位来自美国Johns Hopkins大学的教授联合编纂而成。各个作者的背景及角度皆有不同，然观点新颖，见解深刻，分析独到。学术界的声量虽然微弱，但其穿透力却可以跨越做广袤的时空，以其客观与理性、尊重与克制，促成永恒的对话与进步。想来，学生时代，论文的写作之所以强调征引与正反辩驳，莫不也是为了通过互文性，在顽固而又偏执的人群中，构建一丝丝微弱的对话的可能性？
