All of the basics in one place, A Toolbox for Building a Better Life after Incarceration provides practical guidance for those reentering society and making a fresh start. Step-by-step procedures, daily reminders, and important insight on conduct and appearance answer the question, "What do I do now?" Author Ralph Hutchinson has been there and has experienced pain of incarceration and the difficulty in readjusting to the "outside." He fills A Toolbox with what he knows you need to make it in a second chance. Keep A Toolbox handy, follow the advice, and you need never look back. Success is in your hands
