It has been said that if you have enough faith you can move mountains. And you can always distinguish who the person is with real faith - he's the one who shows up with a shovel! That's what this book is about: moving the mountains in your life. Showing up each day with a positive attitude and creating successful habits today will produce the life you want tomorrow. Take responsibility for your life by owning up to your actions without making excuses or blaming others. Develop a clear vision of what your future will be and set specific goals to get there. Be committed to exceeding the expectations of others and develop a reputation for going the extra mile. Finally, learn to love by taking action to show others that they are important. By living the principles in this book, you will move the mountains in your life and become a person of success and significance.
