In this unique book, prisoners on Texas Death Row share their feelings, hopes, fears, and memories with the reader through a series of nonfiction pieces and original art. Excerpts: "But the thing is, I don't want to get out of prison. This life is all I've known for thirty years."--Perry Austin "Death Row has one of the best collections of black widows I've ever seen."--Les Bower ." . . we will remain faceless and nameless inmates with just a number, lost and forgotten. . . ."--Anibal Canales "But when you pop the top of a Coca-Cola the smell of freedom is released."--Ivan Cantu "So my life on deathrow is a struggle of equanimity, a testament of fortitude, and a story of indomitable will."--Derrick Johnson "The thing is, none of us get a second chance--not really. Time passes us by and we have to live with the consequences of our actions, or in my case die for them."--Anthony Shore "One can be physically incarcerated, but free in his mind, his thoughts, actions, and how he chooses to look at life's journey."--Charles Thompson "Most of us became lost souls as children."--Carlos Trevino "Maybe someone will re-evaluate their life based on these few words and make a change for the better before it is too late."--Perry Williams
