Groundbreaking Call For Youth Activism from Dallas Jessup (17) who grew a service project into the non-profit Just Yell Fire that became a Million Girl Revolution against sexual assault, abduction and sex trafficking in 43 countries. She shares inspiring stories of 10 high-impact teens fighting Big Tobacco, feeding the hungry, building schools, stopping bullying, raising awareness and other world-changing projects in a how-to format for the next generation of heroes. A must-read for parents wanting to get their teens involved, for teachers wanting to inspire their students and for any teen wanting a roadmap to launch a cool and effective volunteer project. Major celebrities, high-level politicians and next door-teen heroes. The teen author is a CNN Hero, a Teen Choice Award nominee, and was inducted into the Hall of Fame for Caring Americans. She travels 10,000 miles a month speaking out for youth volunteerism and was recently referenced as a Leading Voice of the Next Great Generation.
