'There is no such thing as autobiography, there is only art and lies'. Set in a London of the near future, its three principal characters, Handel, Picasso and Sappho, separately flee the city and find themselves on the same train, drawn to one another through the curious agency of a book. Stories within stories take us through the unlikely love-affairs of one Doll Sneerpiece, an 18th century bawd, and into the world of painful beauty where language has the power to heal. "Art And Lies" is a question and a quest: How shall I live?

As much as I enjoy Winterson's poetic language and thoughtful imagination, the book renders itself confusing at times in its unchronicled narrative and seemingly unrelated segments of contemplation. I found myself lost in her beautifully visual words and painfully dark concerns.

很明显的一次实验性尝试，隐喻和碎片化故事的串联。很多地方都可以看作是后面出版的gut symmetries和powerbook的雏形。比较神奇的是，温特森在这个时候已经开始lost and found这个主旨了，之前一直以为是从太阳之战开始的。
