Stefan Zwicky is the name in Swiss interior architecture. The impressive portfolio of top-grade projects realised by his Zurich studio has left its mark on a variety of sectors, particularly those related to retail, exhibition and gastronomy. Zwicky's designs have a distinctive sense of clarity and simplicity, complemented by a degree of austerity in the execution. The monograph presents, among others, several well-known projects: - CafA(c) Schwarzenbach - Information pavilion for a bridge under construction near Baden, Switzerland - Temporary showroom for lighting manufacturer Zumtobel, featured at Designers' Saturday Zurich - Design in Zurich, pavilion for the Swiss Furniture Fair - GM, trade-fair stand for a Swiss importer of bicycles.
