The Trouble with Tink by Kiki Thorpe, read by Cassandra Morris

Tinker Bell is the best pots-and-pans-talent fairy in all of Pixie Hollow. But then she loses her tinker's hammer and her world is turned upside down. The good news is that Tink has a spare hammer. The bad news is that she left it at Peter Pan's hideout and they're no longer speaking! Will Tink be able to make up with her old friend or will she have to give up her talent forever?

Beck and the Great Berry Battle by Laura Driscoll, read by Alison Larkin

There s nothing Beck likes more than speaking Bird or Chipmunk or Fox or Mole with the animals. Then one day her funny little hummingbird friend, Twitter, tells her that war has broken out between the hummingbirds and the chipmunks. Soon the blackberries start flying and fairies are getting caught in the crossfire. It s up to Beck to get to the bottom of things. Only she can bring peace back to Pixie Hollow!
