Terry Harrison takes the mystery out of watercolour painting in this lively and inspiring guide. This book helps you learn how to create beautiful paintings of mountains, valleys and streams using a range of brushes and simple techniques. There is useful advice on mixing colours from a limited palette, and on composing a pleasing scene from photographs. Step-by-step demonstrations show how beautiful paintings can be achieved. Experienced artists will benefit from Terry's guidance, and his no nonsense advice is also ideal for people picking up a paint brush for the first time.
