"Christian Education as Evangelism" provides skills and tools for evangelical outreach.

Each chapter includes stories, questions for reflection, and practical parish strategies. This is an ideal primary textbook for college and seminary classrooms. Contributors include: Diane J. Hymans, Trinity Lutheran Seminary, Columbus, Ohio; Carol Jacobson, Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary, Berkeley, California; Margaret A. Krych, Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Mary E. Hughes, Trinity Lutheran Seminary, Columbus, Ohio; Eddie Kwok, Lutheran Theological Seminary in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada; Nelson Strobert, Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania; Phyllis Kersten, Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago, Chicago, Illinois; Susan McArver, Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary, Columbia, South Carolina; Mary Hess, Luther Seminary, St. Paul, Minnesota; Kristine Lund, Waterloo Lutheran Seminary, Waterloo, Ontario; Norma Cook Everist, Wartburg Theological Seminary, Dubuque, Iowa; and Donald Just, Lutheran Seminary Program in the Southwest, Austin, Texas.
