This book is a collection of stories and poems about Multiple Sclerosis and its effects. This book covers the effect of people with this disease and caregivers of those with MS. The stories range from those diagnosed months ago to those who have lived with this disease for 25+ years. The people in the book come from every region of the world and every life style. They all have one thing in common, they have MS and they continue to live. A must have for those with Multiple Sclerosis
