Relating to the angels isn't always easy for us lowly humans. So, angel intuitive Chantel

Lysette found a way to bring 'Mike', 'Gabe', and their divine gang down to earth. Irreverent and uplifting, this book will help you understand and connect with these celestial beings who - like any close friend - want to hear from you. With humour and sass, Lysette interviews twelve archangels and reveals their likes, dislikes, hobbies and more. Michael loves to pull pranks, Sandalphon grooves on jazz, and Azrael, the angel of death, has a sweet tooth. Tag along with Lysette as she chats with each heavenly host and visits their celestial mansions. Discover what the angels think of each other, how they view humankind, and when each one is most likely to show up in your life. Breaking the ice between humanity and divinity, this unique guide to the angels will inspire you to get off your butt and develop a personal relationship with your spiritual teachers. 'Azrael holds in his hands the fate of all, including us angels. Michael is so screwed' - Archangel Sandalphon. 'Whatever you say about the tallest angel in Heaven, it had better be nice' - Archangel Michael, speaking about Metatron. 'I've seen Uriel smile ...once' - Archangel Cassiel.
