This is a collection of new work on central issues in analytic aesthetics by many of the foremost young writers in the field. This book covers the issues in aesthetics which are of central concern to philosophers today. It is written by a new generation of philosophers indicating future directions for analytic aesthetics. Leading young scholars present a collection of wide-ranging essays covering central problems in meta-aesthetics and aesthetic issues in the philosophy of mind, as well as offering analysis of key aesthetic concepts, new perspectives on the history of aesthetics, and specialized treatment of individual art forms.
