Examining the premises and core elements of his controversial and groundbreaking books, this two-hour lecture and discussion spotlights author and environmental activist Derrick Jensen. Providing a perfect introduction for newcomers as well as additional insight for those already familiar with Jensen's work, this argument courageously exposes the ravages of industrial civilization. Relaying humorous anecdotes from the presenter's life and bravely presenting some of the endless forms that resistance can--and must--take, this discourse leaves its audience both engaged and enraged.
