The fourth edition of the best seller, Market-Led Strategic Change, confronts the real issues companies face in going to market effectively and profitably, including:

- * corporate social responsibility
- * marketing under siege
- * dominant customers and much else besides.

In his witty and direct style, Nigel Piercy takes into account state-of-the-art thinking, including nine new case studies providing invaluable lessons from global firms:

- * Tata
- * EMI and the music business
- * Cloud computing
- * IBM
- * BAA
- * Rover cars
- * Tesco in the USA
- * Mittal and global steel
- * One-Laptop-Per-Child.

The book confronts the critical issues now faced in strategic marketing:

- * escalating customer demands driving the imperative for superior value
- * totally integrated marketing to deliver customer value
- * the diffusion of Internet-related issues throughout marketing
- * managing processes like planning and budgeting to achieve effective implementation

At once pragmatic, cutting-edge and thought-provoking, Market-Led Strategic Change is essential reading for all managers, students and lecturers seeking a definitive guide to the demands and challenges of strategic marketing in the 21st century.
