Karnad examines Indian nuclear policy, doctrine, strategy and posture, clarifying the elastic concept of 'credible minimum deterrence' at the center of the country's approach to nuclear security. This concept, Karnad demonstrates, permits the Indian nuclear forces to be beefed up, size and quality-wise, and to acquire strategic reach and clout, even as the qualifier 'minimum' suggests an overarching concern for moderation and economical use of resources, and strengthens India's claims to be a 'responsible' nuclear weapon state.
