Organizing has become a huge industry and no wonder: we all have overflowing wardrobes and desk drawers, countertops littered with kitchen gadgets, and overstuffed computer desktops. We dream of getting organized - but what's a disorganized person to do? In this book, professional organizer Stacey Platt comes to our rescue with empowering ideas on putting and keeping things in order. Like earlier books in the series, such as "What's a Cook to Do?", the solutions are easy to scan and access. How do you organize the fridge? What about kids' artwork or your music collection? How do you pack efficiently for a trip? Here are hundreds of ingenious solutions for gaining control of clutter so you can live happily in your space.
