Ellie Bond's heart has ached ever since she lost her beloved husband and little girl. Now her head is telling her it's time to get her life back on track. Her first small step: answering big-shot music executive Mark Wilder's "Housekeeper Wanted" advertisement! Outwardly Mark is supercool, uberpowerful and can make or break careers, but it's the compassion beneath his public exterior that's reawakening Ellie's zest for life.
