AA Weekend Walks in Britain is a new book containing the details of 200 circular walks through the best of Britain's countryside. Fully illustrated with specially drawn maps and colour photographs, this is the ideal book to help you make the most of exploring Britain - with all the information you need for a great day out. The walks have been carefully selected to suit all ages, and most are between 2 and 4 miles long. All walks return you to your start point, and some offer extra loops for the more energetic. Many of the walks pass near a castle or house or perhaps an unusual village museum, and details of these are also included, along with special features on things to look out for, and tips on spotting wildlife.
