Nichol Decoys portrays the art and times of the celebrated Nichol family of decoy carvers and the Smiths Falls school they inspired. Based on the colorful autobiography of D.W. Nichol, this book presents the life, times, and achievements of arguably one of the most accomplished and influential families in the annals of North American decoy carving in the 20th century. Nichol decoys consistently draw enthusiastic audiences and strn bids at auction. Featuring outstanding examples of wildfowl folk art made visually available for the first time to the general public. Printed in full color in hardcover, foiled cloth with jacket, 229 images, 10 x 8 inch landscape format
