This volume is part of the series, "A Commentary on the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child". "The Commentary" is legal in nature and provides an article-by-article analysis of all substantive, organizational and procedural provisions of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child and its two optional Protocols. It constitutes an essential tool for actors in the field of children's rights, including academics, students, lawyers, judges, grass roots workers, governmental, non-governmental and international officers. Article 6, The Right to Life, Survival and Development, offers a comparison with related human rights provisions, followed by an in-depth exploration of the nature and scope of State obligations deriving from Article 6.
