I Am Plastic, Too showcases the next generation of designer toys from around the world. Created by fashion designers, comic book artists, underground illustrators, graffiti artists and fine artists, these toys, which cost anywhere from five dollars to thousands of dollars, are coveted by collectors everywhere. With kids, parents, celebrities, and design aficionados hooked, the designer toy phenomenon just keeps getting bigger. This book is packed with toys from 130 artists and companies and includes extensive interviews with thirteen of the hottest designers working today. Many of the favourite creators from the first book are back along with new designers such as Amanda Visell, Brandt Peters, eBoy, Jon Burgerman, Kathie Olivas and Tara McPherson.
