Are you ready to read some good poems? This book will take you on a spiritual poetic journey. The poems written should inspire you to study the Bible more, not just read it. The poems could also inspire you seek God in a more positive way. The poems are written by three Christians who are inspired to write. Each poem is written with a Biblical meaning. As you explore the poems, God's word will bring forth a whole new meaning. So take a break from your daily routine and read some really good poems. By the time you finish, you will be seeking new and better ways to study the Bible. Why not take a new look at life. You will not be sorry. Harold I. Brown is a Christian who studies the Bible each day. Harold attends church each Sabbath as he accepts Christ as his savior. After Harold became a full time Christian he started to write poems for Sabbath School. Each poem is inspired by some act or picture. Harold loves to play with words until each poem become a piece of art. Harold also gives Sabbath School lessons and has spoken a few sermons. Harold knows that doing God's will is the most important part of his daily life. Each day Harold finds a new path to walk, as he brings himself closer to salvation through God's forgiving grace. Harold is also planning to write more books about God's holy way in the near future. Life is like a bowl of cherries that has to be sorted out. God has a wonderful future for Harold, as he moves down the witnessing path of Life. God is great.
