Not a dream, not a hoax, not a parallel universe! Two of the most unique investigators of all time try to untangle the same mystery...one hundred years apart from each other! The lawless wild west, the hidden world of Victorian London, the present day hell of Hollywood...there...and back again. Follow Holmes' trail of a man who was wrongfully - and willingly - imprisoned, to shocking New World Order anarchy, to a beautiful woman who needs Kolchak to delve into the surreal past, to the shunned man who has the key to it all...one of the strangest stories never told! This volume contains the entire bestselling, three-issue mini series!
