"A global phenomenon, perhaps the most widely read voice on foreign policy on the planet." —New York Times on Noam Chomsky

"The conscience of the American people." —New Statesman on Noam Chomsky

Product Description

This audio recording of a historic address given by Noam Chomsky, one of the world's leading intellectuals, offers an analysis of current world events, including the economic crisis and its structural roots, U. S. foreign policy under the Obama administration, and the social and economic interest driving both foreign and domestic policy. The tradition of worker self-management as a viable alternative to the business-as-usual approach of corporations and the government is also discussed in detail.
