This sequel to Garland's acclaimed autobiography, "A Son of the Middle Border," continues his story as he sets out for Chicago and settles into a Bohemian encampment of artists and writers. There he meets Zulime Taft, an artist who captures his heart and eventually becomes his wife. The intensity of this romance is rivaled only by Garland's struggle between America's coastal elite and his heartland roots. "A Daughter of the Middle Border" won the Pulitzer Prize in 1922, forever securing his place in the literary canon.
