Cedar Grove is a tiny town about a mile and a hair past nowhere. They've got two stoplights total, an old brick schoolhouse that also serves as the town hall and bingo headquarters on Thursdays. They're very proud of their one-half of a fast food restaurant. The other half is technically in Butner. Not the same Butner to which you may be familiar with. Time rolls at a slow pace in Cedar Grove, where the most exciting thing that ever happened was the time Cleetus Harley's pig made front page of the paper for having borned her a piglet with three tails. These stories aren't fancy. They're just about the people.
