Purrlock Holmes the cat, and Watson the Basset Hound, are a mismatched pair of mystery sleuths. But when their neighbourhood is hit with a series of small and unusual thefts, they are hot on the scent. Has the Schnauzer a nose for news? Was the goldfish in at the fin-ish? What does the turtle know about a missing silver dollar? Using the squeals and squawks of their animal friends, Purrlock and Watson follow the trail of someone with something to crow about.
