In this delightfully illustrated retelling of a prime time Mickey Mouse Clubhouse episode, it's the grand opening of Minnie's Bowtique, a store jam-packed with every kind of bow and bowtie under the sun. But problems arise when Pete, embarrassed about buying a lady's bow for his favorite aunt, causes a few accidental mishaps in the new store. However, super salesperson Minnie (with our help) finds the perfect bow for Pete. The Bow-tique's grand opening is a grand success – and it all ends in a Big Bow Show with all our Clubhouse friends modeling the latest fashions under the biggest bow of all, a colorful, sky-high Rain-Bow!
