Hip is a turtle who raps really slowly. Hop is a bunny who rapssuperfast. Even though theyboth livein Oldskool County, neither of them has ever met. When they see a sign for a rap-off, they become fast friends. When the big contest arrives, neither slow nor fast wins the prize. A hip new take on thetortoise and the hare fable, this debut picture book features simple, engaging art that combines elements of comics with those ofa traditional picture book. Short, humorous raps read at varying speeds make this a rollicking read aloud that kids will want to hear over and over.
