"Hey Dad, what's a Democrat?" Sean Stanton is a twelve-year old golfing prodigy. But in one round of golf, he is going to learn a lesson that reaches far beyond the course and resonates much longer than eighteen holes. Instead of learning to fill a divot, he will learn to filibuster. Instead of learning to spin a wedge shot, he'll learn to spin excuses. As every rule and etiquette norm in golf is broken, Sean learns every flaw and danger of today's Democratic Party.
