On the heels of Mark Hitchcock's (TM)'s prophecy bestseller 2012, the Bible, and the End of the World comes a suspenseful novel (coauthored with bestselling novelist Alton Gansky) about the supposed expiration date of planet earth: "December 21, 2012." Andrew Morgan is a wealthy geologist in search of the meaning of life. In his quest for answers he encounters the ancient Mayan predictions that the world will end in 2012. That the claims seem supported by math and astronomy drives him to check on them. Then he meets Lisa Campbell, an attractive Christian journalist also researching the Mayan calendar. She shares what the Bible says about the last days, yet is quickly dismissed. During 2011, earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, tsunamis, and wars rapidly escalate. Are these the early indicators of a global apocalypse? Will anyone survive? Does Lisa (TM)'s Bible have the answers after all? Or has fate destined everyone to a holocaust from which there is no escape?
