Named by TIME magazine as one of the best suspense novels of the year "Fiddler is to California what Spenser is to Boston and Travis McGee is to Florida. Tough, smart guys who know that sometimes, what looks like paradise, is pure hell."--Paul Levine, best-selling author of Illegal "Maxwell's work is engaging and wonderfully articulated."--Robert B. Parker "Maxwell's style is sexy and hard-hitting."--Publishers Weekly Back in print, the fourth Fiddler and Fiora crime novel. When an American customs agent who once saved Fiddler's life dies suspiciously on the US-Mexican border, Fiddler heads south to look into the death.
