How does a small-town girl end up investigating crime at a funeral home in Toronto? Drop-dead gorgeous Katrina is trying to run her new salon and take her relationship to a new level. The unexpected death of a client and struggles with her salon lead her to the Shady Rest funeral home. As she stumbles her way through the personal problems that plague her world, Katrina ends up immersed in the world of preparing people for the next world. With the help of a ruggedly handsome police detective, some old friends, and a few new ones, will she get to the bottom of what's going on, or end up buried by it? One thing is certain when Katrina gets involved, chaos and comedy will ensue.
