One of a range of four fun flap books featuring a range of typically zany Dr. Seuss characters, introducing pre-readers to simple concepts such as the five senses and different kinds of weather. Sight, touch, taste, hearing and smell are all explored in a simple way that will appeal to pre-readers of two years old and upwards. Bright, bold illustrations of typically Seussian characters, with simple rhyming text and a flap to lift on every spread all add to the fun.
