It takes only a glance at one of her dog or cat paintings to know that Sueellen Ross has deep affection for her furry subjects. The care that she takes with each line of India ink, each swash of watercolor, and each stroke of colored pencil to create an almost photo-like depiction leaves no doubt of her feelings. Her talent and her devotion have earned her much acclaim and many fans, from Seattle where she lives with her husband, two dogs, and two cats to museums and galleries throughout the world. Acclaimed as "America's definitive cat artist," Sueellen Ross paints realistic cats in everyday situations. Cat and art lovers alike will enjoy a different one of her paintings on each monthly spread of this beautiful Sueellen Ross Cats We Love 2011 Wall Calendar.
