A varied and wonderful source of inspiration for all book lovers and collectors.

Bookcases, bookshelves, entire rooms: more than simple storage spaces for books, these are unique decorative elements that reveal the personality and lifestyle of their owners. Home libraries are always personal and often evolving, whether they are specially created in a separate room or found in nooks and crannies all over the house, whether modern or traditional, whether clearly organized or a surreal mess.

In this book, Dominique Dupuich and Roland Beaufre lead a guided tour of the libraries of some passionate readers, organized by the type of book lover: decorator (clean lines, structured); fashion designer (chic, glamorous); writer (cluttered, charming). . . . The book concludes with an invaluable catalogue of shelves, lighting, and accessories that will suit any kind of home library.

Featuring: The Artist's Library • The Decorator's Library • The Designer's Library • The Fashion Designer's Library • The Writer's Library • The Collector's Library • The Journalist's Library • and The Boss's Library. 200 color photographs and illustrations

评论

几乎每间都是我的dream house...有书的地方就是家啊.....

书房还是有窗的好，窗外是花花草草更好；书柜还是有玻璃柜门的好（嗯...再考虑考虑）；书桌还是要大的、木的好；书房里还有张长沙发，书柜旁还有面镜子，也很好。

-----
好好的书架。好好的书

-----
各地书迷、藏家展示自己书房和书架的图集，有英式到顶和精装书，有博古架设计感很强但没放几本书的，有逼仄局促但体现着一种书虫才能体会的富足感的。过瘾的书。
