Brimming with images and insightful text, this unique book is the benchmark reference on what is arguably the most influential and important furniture brand of our time. It reveals in unparalleled detail how Charles and Ray Eames as well as a talented team of designers worked to create pieces that still top bestseller lists. The book describes the key role played by the Eames Office's own development and perfection of production processes for its designs as well as the significance of its relationship with manufacturers. By documenting the creation and spread of these landmark furniture designs, this book also tells the story of how modernism became established in homes and offices throughout the world.

评论

这作者到底是有多讨厌Eameses夫妇（特别是Ray Eames），才能做出这样的一套书来……有点震惊啊，从来没见过作者含着如此主观的情感来“批判”历史人物，看得我充满了质疑，觉得这作者不靠谱，不知道把功课都做到哪里去了。
