In 1938, a German scientific expedition to the Antarctic uncovered something that would alter history. Fighting fierce winds and bone-chilling temperatures, a team of motivated researchers worked tirelessly to claim a mysterious and powerful prize for the fatherland: the remains of an alien starship, with a still-living member of its crew! The military implications of this discovery would usher in a new era of strategies and weapons.

Dust is a strategy board game of conflict and control in an alternate science-fiction history for two to six players. It features streamlined, elegant gameplay and sweeping, epic scope with gorgeous artwork by Paolo Parente.

Dust includes:

Two variant rulebooks, featuring quick-playing “Premium” rules and grand “Epic” rules.

One puzzle-cut game board.

Over 800 plastic figures!

45 lavishly-illustrated cards

10 custom battle dice

25 game tokens

3 player reference sheets
