Four principles, according to Nasser Zaghi, combine to create a blueprint for conflict resolution, whether in intimate relationships or on a worldwide scale. The first principle is love, and the other three acceptance, fairness, and doing one's best lie within it. Living by these four simple principles confers the power to transform problems and challenges into understanding, harmony, and cooperation. The aphorisms in this book can be used as daily meditations or discussion topics and can help readers visualize and ultimately materialize a world filled with love.
