"A beautifully crafted, exquisitely detailed illustrated concertina book that's just as good decorating your wall as it is to flip through, and just as good for kids as it is for young-at-heart grown-ups."--Tom Morris, associate editor, "Monocle Magazine" Telling the story of the rise and fall of the dinosaurs and the subsequent evolution of the mammals, this book will provide a beautiful frieze for an arty design enthusiast as well as an excellent gift for a child or young adult. The broad appeal of this title makes it our current bestseller. A stunning fifty-four-inch panorama of evolution. A beautiful concertina that can be read as a book, displayed on a mantelpiece, or even framed as a print. Thanks to the wraparound cover, this book is also easily displayed in shops spine facing. Manufactured with Nobrow Press' trademark spot color printing technique: unparalleled vibrancy. Micah Lidberg is a young artist living and working in Kansas City, Missouri. Having worked for the likes of "The New York Times," "Nylon Magazine," and Orion Books, he is also an avid storyteller with self published zines and comic books.
